

NEWS OF MILLERSBURG

Farmers in this neighborhood took advantage of the recent cold spell and many butchered their hogs.

Miss Ruth McClintock attended the State Convention of the Mission Study Class at Danville Tuesday and Wednesday.

Misses Carrie Peed and Edna Clark attended the meeting of the State Baptist Association in Lexington this week.

Miss Anna Head returned Wednesday to her home in Bradford, Ky., after a month's visit to her brother, Mr. J. K. Head.

Born, Monday, to the wife of Mr. Leslie Shroot, of Owensville, a son, Mrs. Shroot was formerly Miss Julia Carpenter, of Millersburg.

Miss Anna Cook is serving as apprentice in the office of the Central Home Telephone Co., with a view of accepting a position later on as operator.

Mr. L. T. Marshall and family are moving today from the property of Mr. G. W. Judy, on Trigg avenue, to his palatial home one-half mile south of town, which has just been completed.

Miss Ruth Striman, of Millersburg, attended the wedding of Miss Maude Knight to Mr. J. Downing Williams, which was celebrated at Elizaville, Wednesday. The bride was a former student at the Millersburg Female College.

The registration department of the postoffice here shows a decided increase in business since July 1, 1913. From July 1, 1912, to July 1, 1913, there were 287 registers; from July 1, 1913, to November 10, there were 247 registers. This embracing a period of four months and ten days. One hundred and eighty-three of these were issued since October 1, at which time Mr. J. B. Cray present incumbent, went to the office.

If business would continue in the next year as it is doing now we will outclass any town of our size in Kentucky. Mr. Cray is a hustler and is doing everything to bring the office up to the highest standard possible.

Myron W. Whitney, the most celebrated basso in America, will appear at the Paris Grand in two concerts on the afternoon and evening of November 25. He comes strongly supported by a pianist and a good orchestra, a part of it to be made up of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Whitney is the distinguished son of a distinguished sire, and it is said in many respects he excels his father.

The name of Myron W. Whitney has been a familiar one in the musical world since the early '60s. This will be a great musical treat Paris has enjoyed for several years and all lovers of music should avail themselves of this opportunity. Programs, tickets and folders can be secured from Mr. R. M. Caldwell, who is assisting Mr. Morehead in working up these concerts at Millersburg. Do not fail to call on me, Home Telephone 82. Mr. Caldwell will furnish any information desired. A part of the house will be reserved for Millersburg. This will give you an opportunity of selecting your own seats. Tickets for either the matinee or evening concert. Don't forget the date.

In 1912 this traffic increased to 18,247 passengers and 106,398 tons of freight. The Elizabethville-Kambove section of ninety-eight miles, the second portion built in Congo, is expected to be in full operation in about two months.

$13,000 TO BE SPENT FOR KENTUCKY MISSIONS THIS YEAR

At least $13,000 will be expended in mission work in Kentucky by the Church of the Disciples this year. This appropriation has been agreed upon at a meeting of the State board of the church's Missionary Society, at Lexington, Tuesday, which approved the report and recommendation of its secretary, H. W. Elliott.

It is expected that the greater part of this appropriation will be expended in Eastern Kentucky, where members of the board stated, this church is now extending its membership and influence. The members of the Missionary Society which determined the matter are:

The Missionary Board meeting was held immediately before the regular monthly meeting of the Christian Ministers' Association, which was held in the private dining room of the Phoenix Hotel. The chief address was made by the Rev. I. J. Spencer, of the Central Christian Church, who spoke on "The Church and the Citizen." The address was followed by an interesting discussion of the subject.

BACON BUYS FINE LAND NEAR SALEM, ALABAMA.

A dispatch from Washington, C. H., Ohio, to the Cincinnati Enquirer yesterday said: "Warren A. Bacon, the horseman, who came to this city a year ago from Paris, Ky., bringing with him a fine string of standard bred horses, several of which have made great records on the turf the past season, has just purchased 500 acres of land 40 miles from Salem, Ala. The plantation is one of the most desirable in that part of the country, and Mr. Bacon will move to it the first of next March. In connection with keeping up a racing stable he will operate the land, it being a fine alfalfa country. He took over the entire equipment, including the foreman, and the negroes, who have for years been working on the plantation. When looking over the plantation last week with a view of buying Mr. Bacon followed the Southern custom and filled his pocket with dimes and nickles which he scattered among the negroes in the cabins on the place, making them feel happy.

"Mr. Bacon has decided to sell all the trotters he owns at the present time, including Peter Billikin (2:10 1/4), the stallion for which the Russian Government recently offered $10,000, the offer being refused. He will also sell the well-known sire, Wiggins (2:19 1/4), sire of the champion of Europe, Wig Wag; Laconda (2:02), the pacing stallion. In his sale will be included 15 colts and brood mares.

"Mr. Bacon's many friends in Ohio and Kentucky will regret to see him go so far away."

Several weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Bacon were here on a visit to relatives and en route South where Mr. Bacon expected to locate permanent.

PARIS BOY THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN KILLED IN ACCIDENT.

The appearance of press dispatch in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Tuesday caused much apprehension among the relatives of James Moran in this city. A young man by the same name met death under the wheels of a train near Dayton, O., Sunday and upon seeing the dispatch from Dayton immediately began to investigate.

His brother, Mr. John Moran, and sister, Mrs. James Craven, sent a number of dispatches to the authorities at Dayton, and after an investigation it was determined the victim of the accident was not the son of Thomas Moran, formerly of Paris, Ky.

His Great Mistake.

The man who wants all the best of every bargain cheats himself of future opportunities.

The Sole of Milan states that practically all obstacles have been overcome and that the concession will presently be granted for the Italian section of the proposed international railway from Locarno to Pallanza, via Cannobbio and Intr. The line will be of great importance as it will pass through country where industry and commerce are in a flourishing state, and it will also serve as a direct link with the Simplon.

TELLS OF TEA LEGEND.

"Tea drinkers should remember the legendary origin of the tea plant," says a writer. "Daruma, a Buddhist priest, son of a king, retired to Lo Yung in order to pass five years in prayer and meditation.

"Like St. Anthony, he was tempted and eventually he fell asleep during his long hours of meditation. On awakening he cut off his offending eyelids that his eyes might never close again, and immediately flung them to the ground, where they were immediately transformed into the first tea plant.

"It was for this reason believed that tea was a beverage sent from Heaven to repel slumber and enable good Buddhist priests to keep their vigils."
